

IHCL opens 39-key Bandra House Mumbai SeleQtions

New boutique hotel celebrates Bandra's heritage, culture and creative spirit through immersive guest experiences

Indian Hotels Company Limited (IHCL) has announced the opening of Bandra House, Mumbai – IHCL SeleQtions, further expanding its SeleQtions portfolio in Mumbai. Located on Turner Road in Bandra, the 39-key boutique hotel draws inspiration from the neighbourhood's rich cultural heritage, historic bungalows, artistic influences and coastal charm.

Designed to offer a more immersive and localised hospitality experience, the property features curated experiences such as heritage walks, culinary trails and cultural explorations that showcase the essence of Bandra. Guests can also enjoy dining at the Bandra House Living Room, a restaurant inspired by the locality's coastal roots and regional flavours.

Commenting on the launch, Deepika Rao said the hotel has been thoughtfully designed to reflect Bandra's unique identity, blending its art, culture and layered history into the guest experience. Amol Kapadia noted that the property captures the vibrant spirit of Bandra, while Gaurav Singh highlighted the hotel's focus on creating meaningful connections with the local community and neighbourhood.

The opening strengthens IHCL's presence in Mumbai while adding a distinctive boutique hospitality offering to its growing SeleQtions portfolio.
