

Renaissance Hotels opens new lifestyle property in Goa

Renaissance Hotels, part of Marriott Bonvoy's global portfolio, has announced the opening of Renaissance Goa Hotel in Arpora, North Goa. Set in the scenic Arpora valley, the hotel offers convenient access to popular beach destinations including Baga Beach, Anjuna Beach and Vagator Beach.

Positioned as a lifestyle hotel for leisure travellers seeking authentic local experiences, Renaissance Goa Hotel features 133 guest rooms and suites. The design language draws inspiration from Goa's natural surroundings, incorporating locally influenced art, textures and materials across public spaces and accommodations to reflect the destination's relaxed yet vibrant character.

Commenting on the opening, Kiran Andicot, Senior Vice President, South Asia, Marriott International, said,

“The Renaissance Hotels brand is built on curiosity and the belief that travel is most rewarding when it connects guests to the distinct character and DNA of a destination. Goa remains one of India's most enduring leisure markets, offering both familiarity and spontaneity. As we continue to grow our lifestyle portfolio across India, Goa is central to our strategy, with a focus on neighbourhood-led experiences, innovative design and a style of exploration that resonates with today's travellers.”

The hotel offers multiple dining and social venues, including an all-day restaurant, a rooftop pool bar and a lobby lounge designed for day-to-night transitions. It also features close to 8,000 sq. ft. of event space, catering to meetings, celebrations and social gatherings.

Roopa Singha, General Manager, Renaissance Goa Hotel, added,

“Inspired by the energy of North Goa and the stories rooted in its neighbourhoods, the hotel has been designed to encourage discovery at every turn. Our aim is to create a Renaissance experience that feels welcoming, expressive and deeply connected to its surroundings.”

With its valley setting, lifestyle positioning and access to North Goa's iconic beaches, Renaissance Goa Hotel strengthens Marriott Bonvoy's presence in one of India's most sought-after leisure destinations.
