

Leah Tata on the launch of IHCL's 250th hotel

The Indian Hotels Company Limited (IHCL), India's largest hospitality company, today announced the opening of Gateway Goa, Palolem, marking a significant milestone as the brand's 250th operating hotel.

A Milestone for the Gateway Brand

Celebrating one year of its reimagined journey, the Gateway brand now boasts a portfolio of 36 hotels. Speaking on the occasion, Leah Tata, Vice President & Brand Leader, Gateway Hotels & Resorts, IHCL, said:

“The opening of Gateway Goa, Palolem celebrates one year of the brand's journey with a portfolio of 36 hotels. Reimagined to serve as a true gateway to the destination, Gateway Hotels offer guests an immersive experience rooted in local culture and heritage. This launch strengthens our presence in the segment with its entry in India's top leisure destination.”

South Goa's New IHCL Address

Nestled between the Arabian Sea and the Western Ghats, Gateway Goa, Palolem is designed to showcase the untouched beauty of South Goa. The 160-key hotel offers sweeping views of Rajbagh, Patnem and Colomb beaches, making it a destination in itself.

Culinary Highlights:

- Trophé – A vibrant tropical bar serving zesty cocktails.
- 74 NE – Canacona's only rooftop bistro, featuring herb-infused grills, global flavours, and stunning 180° panoramic views.

Wellness & Leisure: Guests can indulge in spa therapies, energize at the fully equipped gym, or relax by the pool under swaying palms. The hotel also features versatile indoor and outdoor venues for weddings, social gatherings, and corporate events.

A Warm Welcome

Ronald Menezes, General Manager, Gateway Goa, Palolem, said:

“Gateway Goa, Palolem reflects the spirit of the destination. We look forward to welcoming guests to a new address in South Goa for social celebrations and corporate events.”

Rooted in Goa's Culture

Beyond its hospitality offerings, the hotel curates experiences celebrating Goan culture and adventure — from traditional feni-making to kayaking and turtle spotting.

IHCL in Goa

With this opening, IHCL strengthens its presence in India's most sought-after leisure destination, taking its portfolio in Goa to 19 hotels, including 5 under development.
