

Koyna Daulat Dongri Festival 2026 to be held in Satara

Maharashtra Tourism, in collaboration with the District Administration, Satara, and the Regional Tourism Directorate, Pune, will host the Koyna Daulat Dongri Festival 2026 in Patan from April 2 to April 6, 2026.

Boosting tourism in the region

The festival is designed to spotlight Satara's scenic destinations in the Sahyadri range and elevate their visibility on a broader platform. Shambhuraj Desai, Minister of Tourism, Government of Maharashtra, noted that the initiative is expected to drive tourism growth, strengthen the local economy, and showcase the region's rich blend of culture, nature, and adventure.

Cultural events lineup

The festival will feature a vibrant cultural programme across five days:

- April 2: Shahiri Powada performances
- April 3: Bhajani Mandal presentations
- April 4: Brass Band performances
- April 5: Lavani Festival

In addition, visitors can enjoy recreational attractions such as fun fairs, boating, horse riding, paragliding, and camel safaris.

Wellness and adventure experiences

The event will also highlight wellness tourism through yoga sessions, meditation, and Ayurvedic therapies. For thrill-seekers, activities such as paragliding, paramotoring, jet-skiing, trekking, rock climbing, and even seaplane experiences will be on offer.

Celebrity participation

The festival will see participation from well-known personalities including Sanskriti Balgude, Janhavi Killekar, Spruha Joshi, Bhau Kadam, Bharat Ganeshpure, Priyadarshan Jadhav, Kushal Badrike, and Hemangi Kavi, along with singers such as Rohit Raut, Juilee Joglekar, and Abhijeet Jadhav.

A celebration of culture and tourism

The festival promises a colourful showcase of the region's traditions and tourism potential, featuring folk art, cultural performances, and special showcases by renowned artists. Agri-tourism activities will also offer visitors an immersive experience of rural life.

Knowledge and heritage experiences

Aligned with the state's tourism policy, the festival will host seminars on women's empowerment, youth engagement, and adventure tourism. Visitors can also explore heritage tours to Sahyadri forts, scenic landscapes, and ancient temples.

Leadership speaks

Sanjay Khandare, Principal Secretary (Tourism), Government of Maharashtra, said, "Such festivals play a vital role in promoting rural, adventure, and wellness tourism. The Koyna Daulat Dongri Festival 2026 can serve as a powerful platform to bring together local talent, cultural heritage, and tourism."

Tourism vision

B. N. Patil, Director, Directorate of Tourism, Government of Maharashtra, added, "Through this festival, we aim to offer a multidimensional experience—combining adventure, culture, cuisine, and natural beauty—while strengthening the tourism identity of Patan and the Satara district."
