

The Leela launches India's first hotel-crafted wine

The Leela Palace New Delhi, long revered as a custodian of India's cultural and artistic heritage, has unveiled Turya—its first-ever private-label wine, created in collaboration with Grover Zampa Vineyards. Known for embracing craftsmanship, tradition, and contemporary expression with understated elegance, the Palace now extends its legacy into the world of fine winemaking.

A Journey Rooted in Nature and Community

Turya mirrors the essence of true winemaking—led by nature, nurtured by artisans, and deeply connected to the land. It embodies India's rich viticultural promise by honouring the soil, the local community, and the unique potential of Indian terroir.

Inspired by the Sanskrit concept of transcendence, Turya celebrates purity, intention, and the harmony between nature and human artistry. As the first private wine label launched by a hotel in India, it marks a milestone in The Leela Palace New Delhi's ongoing journey of cultural stewardship and thoughtful innovation.

Craftsmanship in Every Pour: The Wines of Turya

Produced from the finest Nashik grapes and matured in carefully selected French and American oak barrels, Turya features a trio of expressive wines—each crafted to reveal the nuances of climate, soil, and technique:

Chardonnay–Viognier Blend

Elegant and refreshing, echoing the quiet charm of Dindori. Expect floral aromas, citrus brightness, and a gentle touch of creamy oak.

Turya C Reserve Tempranillo (2015 Vintage)

A heritage-driven classic with layers of dark berries, figs, tobacco, and leather—earthy, complex, and timeless.

Turya Private Barrique Reserva Shiraz

Crafted exclusively for The Leela Palace New Delhi, this Shiraz presents

Dindori's distinct character with refined notes of dark fruit and warm spice, tailored for the most discerning palates.

A Sensory Journey Across Iconic Culinary Destinations

Turya will be showcased across the Palace's celebrated dining venues and offered in guest rooms as part of its curated wine collection. Guests can experience bespoke pairings at:

- Le Cirque – European refinement
- MEGU – contemporary Japanese artistry
- The Library Bar – sophisticated sips and storytelling
- Jamavar – the richness of Indian cuisine
- The Qube – global culinary inspiration

Each venue presents Turya through a unique lens, transforming the wine into a multi-sensory experience defined by flavour, craft, and culture.

A Timeless Memento of Indian Luxury

Speaking about the launch, Preeti Makhija, General Manager, shared:

“Turya represents far more than an addition to our wine portfolio—it embodies our commitment to elevating the guest experience through thoughtful craftsmanship. At The Leela Palace New Delhi, we believe in offerings rooted in authenticity and shaped with intent. Turya reflects that philosophy: a harmony of culinary vision, the artistry of winemaking, and a deep respect for nature. It is an expression of who we are as a Palace—deeply connected to our community, our land, and the evolving tastes of our guests.”
