

IHCL Signs Tree of Life Resort in Nashik, Expands Maharashtra Portfolio

Indian Hotels Company Limited (IHCL) has announced the signing of a Tree of Life resort in Nashik, Maharashtra, strengthening its footprint in the state's expanding leisure and spiritual tourism market.

Strategic Location in Trimbakeshwar

The upcoming Tree of Life Nashik will be located in Trimbakeshwar, a prominent spiritual destination famed for the Trimbakeshwar Temple and its proximity to the Western Ghats.

Spread across more than three acres, the 49-room resort will be set amidst natural surroundings and designed to offer an immersive, experiential stay. Planned facilities include:

- An all-day dining restaurant and bar
- A meeting room
- Swimming pool
- Spa

Expanding in a High-Growth Leisure Market

Nashik has steadily emerged as a preferred short-haul getaway for travellers from Mumbai and Pune, driven by its blend of spirituality, vineyards, scenic landscapes and outdoor experiences.

The signing marks the debut of the Tree of Life brand in Nashik and further consolidates IHCL's position in Maharashtra's leisure segment.

Partnership & Portfolio Growth

The project is being developed in partnership with Onzal Farms LLP.

With this addition, IHCL will have four operational hotels in Nashik and two additional properties in the pipeline, reinforcing its strategy of deepening presence across high-potential leisure and pilgrimage destinations in India.
