

Royal Orchid Hotels launches its 14th property in Maharashtra

Royal Orchid Hotels Ltd. (ROHL) has unveiled its 14th property in Maharashtra with the grand opening of Regenta Bharti Resort in the serene hill station of Mahabaleshwar. Nestled in the Sahyadri ranges and just an hour's drive from Pune, this sprawling 52-acre retreat promises a blend of nature, luxury, and adventure.

The resort features a wide range of accommodations—from Deluxe Rooms to Suite Rooms and multi-bed options—catering to all kinds of travelers, including families and groups. Guests can enjoy an array of leisure activities including a water park, amusement rides, a dedicated kids' zone, spa, fitness centre, and a scenic swimming pool.

Built for both relaxation and grand occasions, the resort offers top-tier MICE and wedding facilities, including 40,000 sq. ft of banquet space and picturesque lawns. Outdoor adventures like sky cycling, ziplining, and UTV rides add an adrenaline rush to the mix.

Speaking on the occasion, CK Baljee, CMD of ROHL, emphasized the strategic importance of Mahabaleshwar as a tourism hotspot, while Ravindra Bharti, MD & CEO of Bharti Group, highlighted their shared vision of delivering a modern luxury experience rooted in regional charm.
